

Do not charge—exchange instead

There is a better and easier way to get your car battery charged.

Just exchange your discharged battery with a charged one.

Just like in a car wash, drive between the rails, stop when the red light comes on and sit while your discharged battery is exchanged with a charged one.

(:-