

The screenshot shows the SolarEdge monitoring website. The browser address bar displays www.monitoring.solaredge.com/solaredge-web/p/main#layout\_. The page header includes the SolarEdge logo and a welcome message: "Welcome Chris Etherington Home Logout".

The main content area is titled "Schematics" and features a timeline of energy production. The timeline shows a series of peaks and valleys, with a zoomed-in view of the data for the period from 11/01 to 17/01. The timeline is labeled "Weekly Energy" and shows a progress bar from 0% to 100%.

Below the timeline, there is a "Hide Playback" button and a large heatmap visualization. The heatmap shows a grid of data points, with a color scale ranging from blue (low) to red (high). The heatmap is labeled "1000" and "1000".
